Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Registrant has received an additional regulatory approval necessary for the completion of its proposed acquisition (the “Merger”) by LVMH Moët Hennessy-Louis Vuitton SE (“LVMH”) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 24, 2019 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Registrant, LVMH, Breakfast Holdings Acquisition Corp. and Breakfast Acquisition Corp.

On June 12, 2020, the Korea Fair Trade Commission of South Korea formally cleared the Merger.

The transaction remains subject to receiving additional regulatory clearances and the satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. Registrant expects to be in a position to close the Merger in the middle of 2020, subject to, as previously announced, the actual length of the Australian Foreign Investment Review Board’s extended review of the transaction, and more generally, subject to potential delays in the regulatory review of the transaction that may result from the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak in the jurisdictions. As previously announced, Registrant’s stockholders on February 4, 2020 voted to approve the adoption of the Merger Agreement providing for the Merger.

The information in this Current Report on Form 8-K is being furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure. In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information in this report shall not be deemed “filed” for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as expressly stated by specific reference in such filing.

Forward Looking Statements:

Certain statements in this communication including, without limitation, statements relating to the Merger and conditions to closing of the Merger, may constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, each as amended. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain, such as statements about the consummation of the Merger and the anticipated benefits thereof. Forward-looking statements provide current expectations of future events and include any statement that does not directly relate to any historical or current fact. Words such as “anticipates,” “believes,” “expects,” “intends,” “plans,” “projects,” “may,” “will,” or other similar expressions may identify such forward-looking statements.

These and other forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future results and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in forward-looking statements, including, as a result of factors, risks and uncertainties over which we have no control. The inclusion of such statements should not be regarded as a representation that any plans, estimates or expectations will be achieved. You should not place undue reliance on such statements. Important factors, risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from such plans, estimates or expectations include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) conditions to the completion of the Merger may not be satisfied or the regulatory approvals required for the Merger may not be obtained, in each case, on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; (ii) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement or affect the ability of the parties to recognize the benefits of the Merger; (iii) the effect of the announcement or pendency of the Merger on Registrant’s business relationships, operating results, and business generally; (iv) risks that the Merger disrupts Registrant’s current plans and operations and potential difficulties in Registrant’s employee retention; (v) risks that the Merger may divert management’s attention from Registrant’s ongoing business operations; (vi) potential litigation that may be instituted against Registrant or its directors or officers related to the Merger or the Merger Agreement and any adverse outcome of any such potential litigation; (vii) the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and other charges related to the Merger, including in the event of any unexpected delays; (viii) other risks to consummation of the Merger, including the risk that the Merger will not be consummated within the expected time period, or at all, which may affect Registrant’s business and the price of the common stock of Registrant; (ix) any adverse effects on Registrant by other general industry, economic, business and/or competitive factors; (x) the outbreak and geographic spread of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) and changes in financial, business, travel and tourism, political, public health and other conditions, circumstances, requirements and practices resulting therefrom; (xi) the recent widespread protests in the U.S.; and (xii) such other factors as are set forth in Registrant’s periodic public filings with the SEC, including but not limited to those described under the headings “Risk Factors” and “Forward Looking Statements” in its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended April 30, 2020, its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2020, the definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the SEC on January 6, 2020, and in its other filings made with the SEC from time to time, which are available via the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on Registrant’s financial condition, results of operations, credit rating, liquidity or stock price. In addition, there can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed, or if it is completed, that it will close in the timeframe previously anticipated, or that the expected benefits of the Merger will be realized.

Forward-looking statements reflect the views and assumptions of management as of the date of this communication with respect to future events. Registrant does not undertake, and hereby disclaims, any obligation, unless required to do so by applicable securities laws, to update any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or other factors. The inclusion of any statement in this communication does not constitute an admission by Registrant or any other person that the events or circumstances described in such statement are material.
